

CODE OF CONDUCT

For parents/guardians

Throughout this document the notation of 'HPN Gymnastics' is hereby referring to 'HPN Gymnastics and all its subsidiaries and subcontractors'.

Throughout this document the notation of 'gymnastics sessions' are those run by 'HPN Gymnastics' and is hereby referring to 'HPN Gymnastics and all its subsidiaries and subcontractors'.

We are fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all participants. HPN Gymnastics believes it is important that all participants, coaches and parents associated, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

As a parent/guardian of children who are participating in the gymnastics sessions run by HPN Gymnastics you are expected to abide by the following rules:

- √ Always encourage your child/ren to learn the rules and participate within them.
- √ Always ensure your child/ren respects fellow participants and causes no harm in any way.
- √ Always ensure your child/ren is wearing appropriate attire, that all jewellery is removed and long hair is tied up.
- √ Always ensure your child/ren has plenty to drink.
- √ Always pay all fees promptly and fully.
- √ Always help your child to recognise overall good performance by encouraging effort as well as progress and results.
- √ Always support your child/ren's involvement and help them enjoy the sport.
- √ Always keep the coaches informed if your child/ren is injured, ill or unable to attend sessions.
- √ Always ensure good time keeping at the beginning and end of your child/ren's session and communicate through the correct channels when alternative collection may arise.
- √ Always abide by HPN Gymnastics' policies.
